CASE STUDY

CASE: O'CONNOR & MORGAN
AMOUNT: $82,858

Choice Plus funded a legal battle for unclaimed property against the Administrator for refusal to pay Ms. O'Conner and Ms. Morgan unclaimed property that belonged to their ex-husbands. Their ex-husbands had skipped out on spousal & child support obligations. Morgan was permanently disabled when her ex-husband shot her 8 times and fled from justice for over a decade. The Administrator had a 20 year policy of denying legitimate claims from creditors based upon a faulty interpretation of appellate court ruling. After more than 2 years of litigation the appellate court ruled that the Administrator's interpretation of case law and statutes were wrong, ending a 20-year-old flawed policy. No attorney fees were awarded to Choice Plus for its advocacy.
